

Ten employees were awarded special degrees by the IGSU management

Today, October 29, 2025, the head of the IGSU, Colonel Aurel Baciú awarded special degrees to 10 officers and non-commissioned officers of the institution. The degrees were given in recognition of professionalism, dedication and outstanding results achieved in service.

The event took place in the premises of the Inspectorate in the municipality of Chisinau in an official ceremony, which was attended by the management of the IGSU, the staff and distinguished employees.

The awarding of the special ranks is a recognition of the significant contribution of the personnel to ensure the safety of the citizens.

The management of IGSU congratulated the colleagues and emphasized the importance of recognizing professional merits and motivated the employees to continue to carry out their work with responsibility, courage and devotion.

The General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations continues to promote the values of professionalism, solidarity and responsibility among the workforce.
