

Release in the municipality of Balti

in the morning of November 17, 2025, the IGSU rescuers from the north of the country were alerted about the occurrence of a traffic accident on the bypass belt of Balti municipality.

The call to Service 112 was received at 08:37. According to the recorded data, following the impact between two cars, a person was stuck.

Two teams of rescuers intervened at the scene, who carried out extrication work. following the accident, a 38-year-old man was extracted by the employees of the Inspectorate from inside the vehicle involved. He suffered various traumas and in a conscious state was taken by doctors to the district hospital for additional care.

The circumstances of the accident are to be determined by the law enforcement agencies.

