Five IGSU employees were awarded special degrees by the IGSU management

Today, November 27, 2025, the head of the General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations, Colonel Aurel Baciu, conferred special degrees on time for five officers of the institution. The distinctions were awarded as a sign of appreciation for the professionalism, dedication and performance demonstrated in the exercise of service duties. The official ceremony took place in the premises of the Inspectorate in Chisinau.

the head of the IGSU thanked the officers for their contribution and daily effort to strengthen capacities in the field of civil protection. The awarding of special ranks demonstrates deep recognition of the work of the force and its constant dedication, as well as devotion to missions related to saving human lives. IGSU management congratulated the advanced officers and encouraged the entire force to continue to show responsibility, professionalism and dedication in their daily work.

Through such ceremonies, the General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations promotes the values of integrity, solidarity and professional excellence among its employees.
