

Firefighters' intervention following a traffic accident on Ungheni-Nisporeni route on the morning of September 17, 2025, rescuers of the firefighters and rescuers Ungheni were asked to intervene to carry out the discharge works following a road accident. The case took place on the Ungheni -Nisporeni route, at the exit from the village of Valea Mare. The call to service 112 was received at 09:31.

According to the registered information, the driver of a Honda Jazz model car skidded and was tamping in a tree. A team of firefighters and rescuers intervened on the spot. Arriving, they established that the driver was stuck inside the car. IGSU employees have managed to extract the person, a 21 -year -old. Subsequently, he, in a conscious state, was taken over by the Emergency Medical Service and transported to the district hospital for rigorous medical care.

The cause and circumstances of the accident occur will be established by the relevant organs.

According to IGSU, in the last 24 hours rescuers and firefighters intervened in 29 risk situations.