

Message of condolences

With deep regret, the General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations of the MAI announces the death of Mrs. Gavrilova Maria Ion, reserve lieutenant colonel.

Mrs. Gavrilova has dedicated more than 30 years of professional activity among the rescue and fire service.

Throughout your career, you have held leadership positions within the Fire Planning and Analysis Section, demonstrating extensive experience and outstanding analytical spirit.

After the transfer to the reserve, in 2013, he continued his activity as a consultant of the Formation Training Section of the Operational Directorate of the General Staff of the Civil Protection and Emergency Situations Service, providing valuable support and sharing the knowledge and experience gained with the younger generations.

Through your professionalism and efforts, your work has significantly contributed to the development of an effective fire prevention and liquidation system.

The staff of the IGSU of the MAI express their sincere condolences to the family, relatives, former colleagues and all those who knew and cherished her.

The memory of Mrs. Gavrilova Maria Ion will remain alive in the history of the institution.

God rest her in peace.
