

Platoon adjutant of the internal service Todica Sergiu was placed in reserve

After an activity of more than two decades dedicated to the service of firefighters and rescuers, adjutant platoon sergeant of the internal service Todica Sergiu, head of the guard of the Vadul lui Vod? Firefighters and Firefighters Unit within Rescuers and Firefighters Detachment Ciocana, was placed in reserve.

the head and colleagues of the detachment brought sincere congratulations to the colleague, who dedicated his life to the noble profession of rescuer, expressing their appreciation for the long and exemplary activity carried out within the institution.

According to the beautiful tradition, the adjutant platoon leader Todica Sergiu was sprinkled with water from the hoses, a symbolic gesture of gratitude and respect for the years dedicated to public service.

Mr. Todica Sergiu started his activity within the General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations on March 20, 2002, demonstrating professionalism, responsibility and devotion to the service.

During his career, the employee distinguished himself by his active involvement in intervention missions, contributing to saving human lives and liquidating the consequences of exceptional situations. For the results obtained and conscientious attitude towards service obligations, Adjutant Platoon Todica Sergiu was decorated with several distinctions, among which: the "Eminent Rescuer" Badge; Medal "For Impeccable Service" classes III, II and I, Cross "For Merit IGSU" class II, Medal "For Impeccable Service IGSU" class II.

With deep gratitude for the work done and the devotion shown towards the profession, the management and the collective of the General Inspectorate for Emergency Situations send him sincere thanks for the years dedicated to the service, for the courage and sacrifice demonstrated throughout his career.