

Press Release: Organization of the 2nd Steering Committee for Project ROMD00183 – FLOODWALLS “Enhancing Community Resilience in the RO–MD Cross-border Area”

During March 3–5, 2026, in the municipality of Bălți, the second Steering Committee meeting was held, organized by the representatives of the Bălți Municipal Emergency Situations Directorate, acting as project partner together with the “Nicolae Iorga” Inspectorate for Emergency Situations of Botoșani County, Romania, the project leader of the project “Enhancing Community Resilience in the RO–MD Cross-border Area – ROMD00183 – FLOODWALLS”, financed through the Interreg NEXT Romania–Republic of Moldova Programme 2021–2027.

During this activity, the analysis of the implementation status of the project activities and deliverables was presented, together with the updated implementation plan, the status of expenditures incurred during Project Period 1, the activities related to budget execution, the initiation and organization of public procurement procedures, as well as the measures planned for Reporting Period 2 and the activities scheduled for Project Period 3 of the project.

– End

